

English for Media Professionals

Develop English skills alongside colleagues from all over the world through media-specific tasks and vocabulary for success on a global playing field

Framework	Programme Summary	Description
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 17.5 hours per week in groups of up to 4 students • 10 hours per week in individual lessons • Courses from 1 to 52 weeks with a Monday start 	Practise vocabulary specific to the language of your media sector Gain fluency and confidence in oral production and presentations Project a clear and convincing message in English	This dynamic programme combines Quatorial lessons (one teacher, four students), workshops and group projects to improve your English for professional use with focused media-specific one-to-one tuition. The course delves into written and oral communication, from analysis of newspaper articles to interviewing techniques. Practise a wide range of sector-specific language alongside developing skills in presenting for TV and radio, planning and research skills, media management and PR.